Independent performance audit initiated on King County Election

UNINFORMED CONSENT, Woodinville, WA – With onset of new voting systems, the security of elections has been questioned.

The November 3rd election in King County is the first time voting has been done completely by absentee voting.

UnInformed Consent, in partnership with The Wellington Times, will conduct a performance audit on the voter base in the City of Woodinville.

All participants will be verified and identified under the laws of the State of Washington.

King County will have an opportunity to cross check data with ballots for authenticity.

Voters who voted in the current election will be contacted over the next 6 weeks to verify votes cast.

Results will be posted at www.uninformedconsent.org
www.thewellingtontimes.org , released to the press and reported to the Washington State Secretary of State.

To expedite this audit, voters who voted in the City of Woodinville's Nov. 3, 2009 election are asked to email their contact information to set up an in-person ballot verification:
